Additional Coaches Responsibilities

6. The principal of respect for all participants challenges coaches to act in a manner respectful of the dignity of all participants in Football. Fundamental to this principal is the basic assumption that each person has value and is worthy of respect.
7. In addition to paragraph 5 above, Coaches have additional responsibilities. The athlete-coach relationship is a privileged one and plays a critical role in the personal as well as athletic development of their athletes. Coaches must understand and respect the inherent power imbalance that exists in this relationship and must be extremely careful not to abuse it. Coaches will at all times:
 - a) Be aware of significant pressure in a players' life, e.g. school, family, and financial pressure, and coach in a manner that fosters positive life experiences.
 - b) Be acutely aware of the power in coaching relationships and, therefore, avoid intimacy with players, both during coaching and during that period following coaching when imbalance in power could jeopardize effective decision-making.
 - c) At no time engage in an intimate or sexual relationship with an athlete of under the age of 18 years.
 - d) Abstain from and refuse to tolerate in others all forms of harassment and loss of self-esteem.
 - e) Act toward players, other coaches, parents and officials in a manner characterized by courtesy, good faith and respect.
 - f) Recognize and address harmful personal practices of others in football, e.g. drugs and alcohol, physical and mental abuse, and misuse of power.
 - g) Strive to be fully present, physically and mentally, in the performance of coaching duties.
 - h) Ensure players train and perform in suitable and safe settings.
 - i) Act in the best interest of the player development as a whole person.
 - j) Be honest, sincere and honorable in all relationships with players, parents, officials and other coaches.
 - k) No use of Tobacco products around the team or field.
 - l) Ensure a safe environment by selecting activities and establishing controls that are suitable for the age, experience, ability and fitness level of athletes, including educating athletes as to their responsibilities in contributing to a safe environment;
 - m) Prepare athletes systematically and progressively, using appropriate time frames and monitoring physical and psychological adjustments while refraining from using training methods or techniques that may harm athletes;
 - n) Avoid compromising the present and future health of athletes by communicating and cooperating with sport medicine professionals in the diagnosis, treatment and management of athletes' medical and psychological problems;

Head Coach
